Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Children Love and Learn From Oceanella In Oceanella, 9 year old Sophia Maniscalco leads children to visualize the fact that dreams do come true. The star of this book, a fairy tale mermaid, Oceanella, shows patience and kindness even in adverse situations. As this story unfolds it reinforces the concept of good and evil; and how good prevails. This book reinforces a positive value system for children and might even restore faith in some adults who read to them. For the many children who today live in blended families, it is a fine example of how to patiently handle step-siblings who invade their turf All children will find Oceanella full of fun, fantasy and the value of faithfulness. It s a happy and exciting read. About the Author Sophia Maniscalco is a budding 9 year old writer and artist. Her untainted childhood imagination is reflected in her colorful creations. In addition, she plays competitive soccer, studies hip-hop dance, enjoys horseback riding and sings in the school choir. Most of her remaining spare time is spent writing and drawing. Her vision of the world is seen through the prism of love and happiness which is reflected in her works. She lives with her mother Erika, father Paul and younger brother Nicolas and attends Cottonwood Elementary School in Englewood, Colorado.
