I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

The daughter of clergyman Edward Abbott and granddaughter of well-known children's author Jacob Abbott, she grew up in a religious and scholarly environment. After studying at Radcliffe, she worked as a secretary and a teacher at Lowell State Normal School. She began writing poems and short stories for publication shortly thereafter. In 1908 she married Dr. Fordyce Coburn and moved to Wilton, New Hampshire. Here she met her first literary successes, with sales to such prominent magazines of the day as Harpers, Colliers, and The Delineator. She soon received national recognition, going on to publish fourteen books and more than seventy-five short stories. Her romantic fiction focused primarily on young women and was described as charming by readers of the day. Her work was most popular in the 1910s and 1920s. This volume collects two of her shorter works: The Indiscreet Letter and Little Eve Edgarton, which are typical of her style and range. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
