Olympia Publishers, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This humorous and heart-warming book looks at the friendships and challenges of seven children who join together to form the The Bogflushers when they start Crumpton Comprehensive School. Luke may be the eldest, most streetwise boy in Year 6 but he is terrified about starting Crumpton Comprehensive School. Rumours abound about the horrors that face Year 7s especially the dreaded bog flush and Luke and his friends all have enough problems of their own. With Maisie's foul smelling bottom burps, Emily's fear of being bullied about her weight not to mention Georgie's stutter and Luke's awareness that he needs to smarten up quick, this is going to be a tough year. Luke knows that he will only survive if he and his friends work as a team. Together, The Bogflushers gang learn that true friendship can help them achieve their individual goals. This book deals with the theme of self esteem through common issues faced by many children and also explores issues surrounding friendship, school and family.
