According to Sri Yukteswar's teachings on the yugas, evolution of human consciousness takes place through cycles of contraction and expansion. Over great length of time spiritual wisdom and inner soul awareness alternate with ignorance caused by materialistic attachment. War and countless atrocities of recorded history demonstrate what happens when the yuga cycle is around its peak of oblivion to the sacred principles of life. It is noticeable also in an array of behavioral dysfunctions, diseases, as well as political, economic and environmental crises. Unquestioned beliefs, subconscious emotional patterns, and delusive security needs are also imprints of the dark yugas. Nevertheless, this great world cycle of the yugas has once more begun its phase of expansion. Unmistakable signs are mental development through information, electronic intelligence, research in mind/body connection, and energy awareness. Many people also search for a natural spirituality of respect for all life. They have begun the transition from outer authority to soulful alignment with their internal security. Where are we now, what has come before, and where are we headed next? Following the red thread of increasing awareness, the answers emerge from within. As the great yuga cycle awakens, consciousness can expand accordingly in the realm of natural truths that respect all life. Imbalance, stress, problems we experience in many relationships, and lack of success in life are remedied by specific prescriptions that reverse conditioning patterns and heal unresolved traumatic imprints. This spiritually inspiring book offers practical tools of recognition and navigational skills toward happiness. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
