The Dedication Project The Dedication Project is a collection of crowd-authored books which contents are primarily dedications collected from a specific community who dedicate the book to someone of influence or importance to their personal lives. Once their volume is published, each author receives a copy of their book to give to dedication recipient. This Project as a whole blurs the lines between art and the everyday, specifically by reviving gratitude in cultural language in the twenty-first century. Dedication: Volume 1 Arianna Warners Family Every community has their own story to share, their own experiences, and their unique interpersonal relations; Families are no exception. Starting off this project, I wanted to learn more and explore the intimate relations of my family first. It is a community which I have spent 24 years growing closer to, learning about family members personal journeys and experiences. This project continues diving deeper into those journeys learning who has played important and influential roles in their lives. Everyones family has its own story to tell, with their own dynamics, experiences, and relationships. Stories of acceptance, sorrow, strength, and love are veins that run through families in many varying ways. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
