Xlibris, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Dear Reader It has been my aspiration to work with an organization that promotes the ideals of literacy projects. My goal is to primarily work with all young students and on top of that with parents and teachers respectively. I created a comprehensive organization that has alternative programs under the umbrella called Senzeni Literacy Club it is a non for profit organization. Its primary focus is to help promote competency and to offer aid to students by preparing them for higher education and help them pay for it. I may not satisfy all the expectations. But by selecting education as a standard, I firmly believe, I trounce all the odds. I believe the job I have undertaken it s a difficult one, that has lot of challenges and disappointments ahead, but none the less, it is a job I would like to shape with my personal strength, character and my true life story, and moreover I chose to make this effort part of my philanthropic work to donate my love, myself, and my personal resources to education episode. I decided to put my poetry work together, at the same time while I m putting my life together. In the hope that, courage will restore my harmonious legacy, may I simply be remembered as an activist and a contributor in the continuous struggle to encourage every child to have an opportunity to go to college and university and serve his or her country in return? Despite my shortcomings, my goal is not to be popular, instead I have made a solemn decision that my life matters in the same manner the lives of others matters, especially living by example...
