Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . SECOND EDITION- NEW TABLE OF CONTENTS INCLUDED. Finally, a book that is concise and covers all the basics. This no-nonsense kick starter should be the first book in your survival library. It is easily navigated through the new table of contents. Many books on the market overwhelm you with information overload. Reading On Your Own and That s The Good News gives you the information you need without trying to turn you into a wilderness survivalist. Most of us will be at home or work when a disaster strikes and not be willing to escape into the wild where you will struggle to stay alive. From food, water, medication, fuel storage and more, this book is intended to help you EVALUATE your personal situation, design a PLAN that works for you and help you ACT on that plan. You re On Your Own and That s The Good News is a concise and unique disaster preparedness guide to get your brain thinking about surviving a disaster. It s neither hard nor expensive to begin implementing a plan that could save your life and of those you love. Learn how to use many of your common household items in an emergency. Find out if sharing resources should be part of your plan. Decide when you should hunker down at home or leave to protect you and your family. Learn how to use your resources wisely. Decide to thrive instead of just survive in a disaster. No one should have to rely on the government, local emergency response or neighbors to help them survive a large scale emergency. Become self reliant. In reality, emergency services may never arrive. Buy this book...
