Luis S. Gonzalez-Acevedo, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Caribbean Poet represents four decades of poetic writing with many frequent and extended periods of silence -the poetic thoughts of a boy, an adolescent and adult. The poems highlight my experiences in the Caribbean and the world. Caribbean Poet considers the following themes: fantasy, love sensuality, death, gothic images, magic dark arts, patriotism, peace, politics, immigration migration, human rights, language, friendship, time, family, philosophy, Christmas, graduation, poets poetry, the United States, Ireland, England -Stonehenge, Mexico -Aztecs, Puerto Rico and Latin America. Like my countryman Manuel A. Alonso, I ask that you receive my poems as the product of many hours stolen from sleep, studies and work. Please judge them with benevolence. Poetic Translations Creative Modifications: Spanish to English The poems in the second part of the book constitute what is still in existence -what remains- from my earlier work. The whims of a temperamental poet are to blame. They were translated, and sometimes modified, from my collection titled Poemas Caribenos. I personally translated and/or modified each poem from Spanish to English. I attempted to salvage much of the syntax and verse construction of the Spanish poems -as much as English would allow. At times, I let inspiration have its way. For this blatant linguistic crime, please accept an apology. I must admit that the sincerity of my apology is highly questionable; but this trait is not so grave as to be unforgivable. As I began the process of translation, I sometimes strayed and ventured into the realm of creative modification. Thus, some verses are a version or nuance of the Spanish lines, not literal translations. The poems Spanish origins and traits can make some poems an awkward read, some more than others; but...
