Henry the Grumpy Christmas Angel: Reviving the Story, Glory, and Spirit of Christmas (Paperback)

By Mr John Caruso

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Henry the Grumpy Christmas Angel chronicles the life and times of a man, born to an itinerate junk dealer at the turn of the twentieth century. His father was born with the gift of gab and amused the townsfolk and their children with and endless succession of ad hoc stories about anything presented to him. Henry developed similar skills while working in the family business. Henry s life was a continual series of disastrous events after another, that shaped his life and made him appear grumpy. He had an arranged marriage with a beautiful, religious, young woman that produced three lovely daughters. Henry, however, was not religious at all, believing only in hard work. Just before Christmas, in his seventieth year, he passed on. The book accounts the events and love of the family left behind that Christmas Eve. Henry upon passing finds himself in a long line leading to the Pearly Gates for judgement. His credentials were not the best to move into Paradise and he was sentenced to the pathway downward. All of a sudden, the Almighty, for the...
