Visiting ministers present were Edmund Stanley, president of Friends University, Wichita, Kansas; Sarah A. Harris, of Gunnison, Col., of Sterling Quarterly Meeting, accompanied by her husband, Z. M. Harris, a worker. Other workers were present from neighboring quarterly meetings. Their presence was a great spiritual uplift to the church. The preaching was with great power. The Meeting of Ministry and Oversight is reported to have been one of great blessing. On Seventh-day Edmund Stanley delivered a powerful appeal to the church, based on Matt. 5: 47, middle clause, What do ye more than others. He had to leave after the meeting on Seventh-day. Seventh-day night, Sabbath morning and night Sarah A. Harris preached with wonderful power, holding the audience spellbound. She also held a meeting for women on Social Purity at 8 p.m. The business of the church was transacted on Seventh-day in harmony. Edward and Amy Cook presented a minute from Stanwood Monthly Meeting for service within the limits of New England and North Carolina Yearly Meetings, which was endorsed by the quarterly meeting. The superintendents of the different departments of church work were appointed. A resolution was sent to the town council and mayor, asking them to enforce the prohibition law and close the saloons, as they were a great injury to educational and religious interests. On Sabbath morning Isaac Maris read a paper on Sabbath School work, after which we listened to reports from the different schools....
