Excerpt from Western Cavaliers: Embracing the History of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Kentucky From 1832 to 1844 Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held in the city of St. Louis. In 1854, at the General Conference which convened that year in the city of Columbus Georgia, I had the pleasure of renewing your acquaintance 53, and in 1858, during the meeting of the same body, in the city of Nashville, I met you again. The respective fields we occupied were too remote from each other to permit, for the time being, any farther acquaintance; hence, eight years passed away before we were thrown together again; for the most part, they were years of sacrifice, of sadness, of suffering. During this period a civil war had swept over our country, desolating the homes of our people, deluging the nation with the blood of brothers, and threatening the existence of our Church. It was in 1866. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work.
