Poetic Voices: Voices from the Community (Paperback)

By Miss Augustina E Samuel

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book is a collection of empowering contemporary spiritual poetry. It has mass appeal and has something for everyone and age. It is written by a cooperative of writers and documents the issues faced in their everyday ordinary lives. The book was produced as a part of a community writing experience. Supporting this book, you are not just obtaining a book to read, you are supporting free community creative writing courses, education and the unemployed into employment through your participation in this writing experience. What we are doing here is giving back to the community. We believe in the importance of our ordinary stories and the immense power that they hold. We can all identify with people who face the same issues as ourselves. Creative Writing has never been about academics and formalities of conventional writings such as an essay, report, dissertations etc. We at KESPublishing believe in the power of words. We promote the sense of knowing that the content is from you. Think of yourself as a blank canvas ready to pour out your ink in the shape...
