Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from 20th Century Bookkeeping and Accounting: A Treatise on the Principles of Accounting and Bookkeeping Practice Applied by Modern Bookkeepers and Accountants The successful business man should know that a profit will result from the transactions in connection with his business before they are completed. To determine this he should have such information as will show the detailed operating cost, the profit from trading or other operations, the net profit for each fiscal period, its source, and the increase or decrease over previous periods. A report concerning the failure or suspension of a business, accompanied by the statement that the creditors will not know What percentage Of their claim may be collected until the experts have audited the books, indicates that the management did not have all the facts available in connection with the business. Such a statement is so common in the newspaper announcement of failures that it suggests a connection between accounting and success. If these conditions are to be improved, it is necessary to teach the correct principles of accounting and the best practice in applying them. The bookkeeping student of today is the bookkeeper or business man Of tomorrow. If he has a knowledge Of the correct principles, as bookkeeper he will apply them, or, as manager, he will see that they are applied by the bookkeeper. The purpose Of this text is to present the correct principles of bookkeeping and accounting, - principles advocated and practiced by modern bookkeepers and accountants. The information upon which it is based was obtained from standard authorities on accounting and from consultations with practicing book keepers and accountants. The text is prepared primarily for the student and not for...
