Herold, George An; Atzerodt, Lewis Payne, Michael O'Laughlin, John H. Surratt, Edward Spangler, Samuel Arnold, Mary E. Surratt, and Samuel A. Mudd From this brief reference to the evidence of the character of the accused, I pass to a consideration of the testimony adduced to prove his connection with the conspiracy. And, first, as to his acquaintance with Booth. J. C. Thompson says, that early in November last Booth went to the house of witness s father-in-law, Dr. William Queen, four or five miles south of Bryantown, and eight or ten from Dr. Mudd s, and presented a letter of introduction from a Mr. Martin, of Montreal, who said he wanted to see the county. It does not appear who Martin was. Booth said his business was to invest in land and to buy horses. He Went with Dr. Queen s family to a church next day, in the neighborhood of Bryantown, and was there casually introduced, before service, by Thompson, to the accused. After service Booth returned to Queen s house, and stayed...
