

Listening to Children Talking: A Guide to the Appraisal of Childrens Use of Language

By Tough, Joan; Schools Council Communication Skills In Early Childhood Project

Ward Lock Educational Co Ltd, 1976. Soft cover. Condition: New. Listening to Children Talking was designed to help teachers help young children develop language skills that are vital for later learning. In particular, what can be done for those children for who school is the only source of help. This resource sets out to help teachers to find out what abilities each child has in using language and so discover what his particular problems are and what help he will need. (Children ages 3-7).
