Everything seems to be falling into place, and then the unthinkable happens sending everything in a spiral. That's the story of Avas life. Ava White, a 21 years old aspiring fashion designer, had it all, a job as an intern with a well-known designer, great parents, a supportive brother, and the love of her life, Danny. They loved each other with everything they had. She was in heaven, until one faithful night the unthinkable happened. After that night, everything spiraled out of control and eventually, she lost everything, along with her heart breaking into a million unrecognizable pieces. Unable to cope with the tragedy that became her life, and losing her true love, she left the one place that she had known all her life. No looking back. Years after staying away, and left with biggest role of her life, it was time to return. Now she would have to fight to secure a future, the one she had set out to do in the beginning. In addition, she had a score to settle with the person who ruined her life. With life getting back on track, her next move was to focus on reuniting with the family she had abandoned during her duress. Romantically, she had closed off her unobtainable heart to ever loving again, thinking she would never find anyone to accept her as is. Broken. That's until she met Ty Montgomery, a marketer who took her by storm. He consumed her every being, but was he the one to put the pieces back together. Now her only decision was to accept her faith that life gave her a second chance...
