Excerpt from The Conspiracy, Acknowledged and Defended: In a Letter to the Rev. William W. Phillips, D.D., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Wall-St. N. Y MY object, in addressing to you a printed letter, is to redress the balance of public Opinion concerning a cause on which it has been unfairly biased, by the publication of your plausible and uncontradicted evidence. The public mind, like the mind of one person, may be misled by fraudulently candid, and in geniously simple ez-parte statements, and under their in?uence its decisions may be unjust but when disabused of these, it will decide with the pure sceptre of unerring truth, and none but the guilty need fear. To lay before it, therefore, the means of self-adjustment, so far, indeed, as my peculiar situation will enable me to supply them, is an effort due to the public, whose honor will be involved not less deeply than my fate in the judgment it may pronounce upon my cause, and is due to my unhappy relatives and friends who stand with me before its tribunal the objects of your relentless prosecution.
