Following his success with Tough Girls Don t Dance, Osmund James hits us with a novel of fun-filled sex and romance set against the backdrop of Jamaica s carnival. This captivating book lays bare the morals of a class-filled Jamaican society, where to be a browning is the ambition of many females and where sex and drugs are the currency of choice for whole sections of the society. Surprisingly for such an environment, there still remains hope of true love winning through as Dave, the possessor of a well-built golden brown body , woos and wins Jenny, the ebony black lady of his . Fighting the social stigma of being born in Jones Town, Jenny escapes the clutches of Harry and Don T to revel in a love of unending ecstasy, amidst a sea of uptown envy, greed and religious fervour.
