Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Create Your Own Stunning Animal PicturesWhether wild or domestic, strange or exotic, from North America, India or Australia, coloring animals is truly therapeutic. Coloring is an activity which has been associated for a long time with kids and it has been taken for granted that, as we mature, we put aside our crayons and turn our attention to more grown-up pursuits. However, in recent years we have witnessed this wisdom being rejected and coloring for grown-ups has become a widespread pastime. But why has coloring for grown-ups become so popular? There are many explanations for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just a few. Coloring Relieves Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have known for a long time that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to rest. In fact the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, gave his patients mandalas to color more than 100 years ago. In today's hectic world the stress reducing properties of coloring are more valuable than ever. Coloring Trains Your Brain To Focus Keeping inside the lines as you color a simple black and white line drawing needs focus and, while you are concentrating on this stress-free and relaxing activity, you can forget about your worries. Coloring is a mind exercise which lets you set aside everything else for the time you spend doing it, and this is extremely important in our stressful world. Coloring Helps To Develop Motor Skills And Vision Coloring forces the two hemispheres of the brain to work together and involves the use of logic (used to color forms) and creativity (as we mix and match colors). In turn, this brings those areas of the brain concerned with vision and...
