PRESENT CONDITION OF POPULAR EDUCATION IN HOLLAND. In Lord Napier's absence, Mr. Ward, the British Charge d Affaires at the Hague, to whose kindness I am much indebted, presented me to M. Vollenhoven, the Referendary charged with the department of primary instruction under the authority of the Minister for the Home Department, M. van Tets. M. Vollenhoven not only furnished me with all the official documents which I wished to consult on the subject of primary instruction in Holland, but obligingly placed me in communication with the school-inspectors of the localities which I proposed to visit. My guide at the Hague was M. van Citters, a member of one of the best families in Holland, of good fortune, and a man of letters, but, with the public spirit of which I have before spoken as distinguishing his countrymen, giving...
