Barbara Nachman, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bonnie Nash, fashion editor at Chic Chick magazine, once believed drop dead meant the epitome of glamour. That was before the catwalk killer prowled the runways. In Catwalk Killer--the first Who-Done-It? Who-Wore-It? Murder Mystery--Bonnie is perched in a front row seat at Natan Arpel's sizzling hot fashion show. The applause is deafening as the designer strides down the runway and takes his bow. In that instant, victory turns to tragedy. Soon designers on both sides of the pond are dropping faster than red-carpet necklines. The police are clueless. But Bonnie, with her stiletto-high fashion I.Q., is on the murderer's trail. She tails the crazed killer from New York to London, Paris, and Milan. But she's not alone. Ravishing Rita, an African American model, and gay-proud Johnny, an enterprising newspaper reporter, are her fashionista friends and sidekicks. And then there's Lorenzo, international man of intrigue and person of interest--in more ways than one. Will the stylish sleuths catch the killer before another designer dies? That remains to be read on the pages of Catwalk Killer. In the meantime, they find plenty of time for romance and shopping.
