Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Committee on the Judiciary House of Representatives, Sixtieth Congress: Argument of Mr. Samuel Gompers Dear Sir: The clerk of your committee this morning informed me that an order was made by the committee that on Monday, February 24, at 10.30 o'clock, time will be given me to address myself to the questions of injunctions and of all labor bills. I stated to him that no one was authorized by the American Federation of Labor or its representatives to make a request for hearings on behalf of labor upon the bill regulating or restricting the issuance of injunctions, but that after I had learned of the order of the committee that Mr. Spelling was to be heard in favor of anti-injunction bills, and all other labor bills, and that thereafter Mr. Davenport and others would be heard in opposition, I asked for an opportunity to be heard before the committee. I desire to state my position clearly that, in my judgment, the Judiciary Committee in previous Congresses have heard fully arguments on bills restricting the issuance of injunctions, and...
