LEADING COMMUNITIES: PURPOSES, PARADOXES AND POSSIBILITIES (PAPERBACK)

Institute of Education, United Kingdom, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book If schools are serious about raising achievement, they must engage with the communities their pupils come from, and create learning communities within the school that encompass everyone from the pupils to the headteacher. But how do you bring communities together--within and across schools, and with local neighborhoods? What is the glue that binds communities together? Professors Kathryn Riley and Louise Stoll argue in this stimulating...
