AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The best way to describe my story The Last Will and Testament is to say that it is about a father, and his sometime reckless son. It is about the Bancroft family and the head of this family is Allen Bancroft. After Allen s wife Camille passed away, he thought that he could rely on the love of his son Derrick, and his daughter Lauryn to help him get through his sorrow. The ambitions, and attitude of his son almost made that impossible. Derrick wanted to take over his father s computer company when his father retired or passed on. However, as a teenager he never wanted to learn anything about the company business as Allen had done with his father when he was a boy. Although Derrick went on to become a stock analysis, Allen did not trust him where his company affairs were concerned. Lauryn on the other hand, was the kind and smiling daughter that never gave her parents any trouble growing up. Allen adored her; she went on to become a fashion designer in Paris. In the end Allen did a most unexpected thing. Something that Derrick could never imagine his father ever doing.
