TOFU.WITH.CLOVES

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Robert Rabbit Haase, a new college graduate with a degree in law enforcement, is begged to return to Klosterberg, a small town in Rural Texas, to investigate the murder of a state trooper. Circumstantial evidence points to Fenton Rivers, the man who four years earlier murdered Rabbit s beautiful, black wife, almost killed him, and was acquitted on grounds of insanity. Back in Klosterberg, Rabbit is appointed the county s chief deputy sheriff. Peetie, his twelve-year-old black adopted daughter and budding computer ace, enrolls in the local school as a sixth grader. While Rabbit works to unravel a trail suggesting that Rivers is a link in an illicit trade route stretching from the Mexican border to Chicago, Peetie encounters problems in school. Her classmate Baylee Ruthers, a troubled black child pampered for her beautiful singing voice, ridicules Peetie s beloved white adopted father. After a confrontation in which Peetie smashes Baylee s nose, the school psychiatrist vows to get the adoption rescinded. Peetie, frantic at the thought of losing her Rabbit-daddy, taps into the drug trade, seeking a way out. The consequences of her rashness ripple through the community and beyond, breaching racial lines in Klosterberg, reaching to the top directorate of the trans-national drug operation, and bringing state and federal forces to Klosterberg as Rabbit works desperately to save Peetie and his new-found love from Fenton Rivers deranged hostility.
