Methydrion: The History of an Ancient City of Arcadia (Paperback)

By Athanasius N. Kollias

New Generation Publishing, 2003. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An immaculately researched book that explores the reality behind the legend of Arcadia. Arcadia. the sound of pan pipes in leafy, sunny hollows; shepherds and the Goat God merrymaking in a painting by any one of the Old Masters; a vanished age of heroes, gods and goddesses. But there is a reality behind the legend, and in this fascinating book, Athanasius Kollias opens it up for both the lay reader and the scholar. Kollias gives us a detailed and exact picture of the archaeology, the topography, the daily life, the economy, the convoluted politics, the shifting alliances and constant warfare, of one particular city and area of Arcadia - from the earliest to relatively modern times. Methydrion is a microcosm, but anyone who reads this book will have an infinitely fuller idea of the glory that was Greece, and of the first and arguably the greatest culture of Europe, whose ideas, whether or not we know it, still inform our language, our ethics, our politics and our daily life.
