BALLS AND STRIKES: THE MONEY GAME IN PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL (HARDBACK)

ABC-CLIO, United States, 1990. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Impressively researched and well written, this valuable study by a business professor at the University of North Florida traces the erosion of the reserve clause and the rise of arbitration in salary disputes, examining the participants in negotiations--players, owners, managers, agents, even commissioners--and showing the stake each has in the money game. Many striking points are made, i.e., there is no discrimination in..
