Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Canadian Pacific Railway Route: The Bute Inlet and Esquimalt Route, and the Fraser Valley and Burrard Inlet Route, Compared as to the Advantages Afforded by Each to the Dominion and to the Empire Less a two years absence, the writer of what follows has, since 1833, resided in these parts, having the previous year entered the service of the Hudson s Bay Company as surgeon and clerk. He has since been stationed at various points at or near the Pacific coast from Oregon to Alaska. At the H. B. post, Fort MacLoughlin, Milbank Sound, having for two years incited the natives to search for that mineral, he had the good fortune in 1835 to ascertain the existence on the N. E shore of Vancouver Island, of good bituminous coal, which was tested less than a year after on board the Company s new steamer Beaver just out from London. He has by land and water travelled over the great Northwest from Jasper s House to Winnipeg; has been more than once through the Walamet Valley, Oregon, and has seen a great part of the beautiful bunch grass country of British Columbia south of N. lat. 51 . Later in life, when resident at Victoria and concerned in the management of the Company s business in British Columbia, the writer had much occasion and opportunity of acquiring information regarding the coasts and harbors of our inland seas, as well as of the farming and grazing capabilities of the traus-Cascade mainland north and south. Since a few years ago - retiring from the Company s service - he has, from every available source, collected facts bearing on the subject in question,...
