Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Shrine of Love, and Other Poems A Dedication O lonely lives in whose sad sky No star of hope now softly beams; Who sit in endless night, and sigh For love's glad dawn that never gleams, It is for you, for you, I seek! O lonely lives that never share The solace of a sweet caress; Who love and hunger to despair, But win no word of kindliness; In your behalf my soul would speak! O lonely lives that firmly kept Affection's faith through every fate; But saw at last your rapture swept By wildest storms that desolate; For you, for you, my breast doth bleed! O lonely hearts that nobly built In hopeful faith a holy shrine; But soon beheld the traitorous guilt Of the dear idol deemed divine; I fully know your awful need! O lonely souls that loved and longed, As only lofty souls can do; But stood at last betrayed and wronged By just the friend ye thought was true; Let these my lines your solace be! O lonely lives so sadly dazed, And blinded by dear hopes defeat; O weary ones whose eyes are raised To find a shelter from life's heat, Receive, receive these songs from me!
