Get Home Survival Guide: (FREE Bonus Included) Best Survival Strategies How To Get You And Your Family Home When You re In Town During Disaster Have you ever considered what you would do if a disaster was to happen in your town? With the high number of terrorist attacks and natural disasters this kind of event could happen virtually anywhere and at any time. The first thing most people do in this scenario is panic! This is followed by trying to contact family members to confirm they are safe. The result is blocked cell networks; if they are even operational and the risk of injury from hysterical people. Fortunately, you do not need to be one of these people! By using a little common sense and creating some plans now, you and your family will know exactly what to do in the event of a disaster. You can establish protocols for contacting each other, meeting points and how to get...
