

America s Best Female Sharpshooter: The Rise and Fall of Lillian Frances Smith (Hardback)

By Julia Bricklin

University of Oklahoma Press, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Today, most remember California Girl Lillian Frances Smith (1871-1930) as Annie Oakley s chief competitor in the small world of the Wild West shows female shooters. But the two women were quite different: Oakley s conservative prairie beauty persona clashed with Smith s tendency to wear flashy clothes and keep company with the cowboys and American Indians she performed with. This lively first biography chronicles the Wild West showbiz life that Smith led and explores the talents that made her a star. Drawing on family records, press accounts, interviews, and numerous other sources, historian Julia Bricklin peels away the myths that enshroud Smith s fifty-year career. Known as The California Huntress before she was ten years old, Smith was a professional sharpshooter by the time she reached her teens, shooting targets from the back of a galloping horse in Buffalo Bill Cody s Wild West. Not only did Cody offer $10,000 to anyone who could beat her, but he gave her top billing, setting the stage for her rivalry with Annie Oakley. Being the best female sharpshooter in the United States was not enough, however, to...
