The pamphlet states that 10, 000 persons are now taking this course of instruction, but it wisely refrains from giving the number of those already become proficient in the hellish art. They are, however, to be found everywhere. Only this morning I gave a man five cents, when a dispassionate review of his personal history and antecedents and a severely minute analysis of his mental condition and moral character would, I am satisfied, under normal conditions, have deterred me. While under his influence I pitied him; but I am now convinced that he was one of the most picturesque of all harmless liars. Then there was the man who sold me thirty-two volumes at 3 per month for ever so many months; the philanthropist who let me in on the ground-floor of the oil speculation; the queer-eyed customer who persuaded me that I needed...
