Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from America and the War in Europe: A Symposium There can be no doubt as to Mr. Low's being the finest, clearest, most unanswerable statement of England's case as yet presented. It is a noble utterance which covers every point in the most dignified language, and it is difficult to conceive how anything stronger and truer can ever be written. The British may well rest their case on Mr. Low's admirably expressed appeal to the fairness and intelligence of the civilized world. - Philadelphia Public Ledger. The best because the most compact and lucid statement of the English case that has yet appeared is the reply of A. Maurice Low, the Washington correspondent of the London Morning Post, to the German statement put forth by Ambassador Count von Bernstorff. Mr. Low puts it unanswerably as follows - Louisville Courier-Journal. On this page is printed a remarkable article by Mr. A. Maurice Low, Washington correspondent of The London Morning Post, and a writer of distinction and ability. Mr. Low makes a thorough study of the German contentions and both his argument and his conclusions are intensely interesting and instructive. The contentions upon which Count von Bernstorff, German Ambassador to the United States, bases his entire case are examined in detail and proved to be absolutely fallacious and untenable, in the light of the official correspondence and the facts. Mr. Low not only justifies Great Britain's participation in the war as an obligation of honor which could not be avoided but he finds that the entire responsibility for the war rests with Germany, and that any peace is impossible until the main issue is...
