According to the old records the family was in England as early as the year 1200 and some of its members were anciently cup-bearers to the king. The American pioneers were of this English stock but the connection with English progenitors has not yet been established. Two branches of the family in England were armor-bearing. One had a grant as follows: Arms. - Per fesse crenelle azure and gules, in chief a lion passant argent, and in base two falchions in saltire, blades argent, hilt and pommels or; on a canton ermine, a mural crown or, suspended therefrom by a ribbon gules, edged azure, the Corunna medal or.
