Raven Wing Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . He s a hunky quarterback. She s a talented artist. He s sworn off girls. She s fighting to protect her honor. Brooding, high school quarterback, Train Everly, was on the fast track to play football at the University of South Carolina until one misstep at a party put his chances in jeopardy. Now in his senior year, he s sworn off dates, no steady relationships and definitely no sex. The last girl he d fallen for tore out his heart and stomped on it with stiletto heels. But a new school year brings new students and one girl in particular, Montana Smith. He can t seem to shake the blonde, curvy, and feisty girl who blows into computer class like a category five hurricane, causing his pulse to race for the end zone. Still, beauty, boobs, and curves are a recipe for disaster. He can t afford to hook up with her. Not if he wants to protect his heart, and his spot on the USC football team. Graffiti artist and rebellious eighteen-year-old, Montana Smith has been expelled from high school more times her mother cares to count. So when Montana gets expelled for defacing school property, Montana s mom decides it s time to get out of the big city and find a southern sleepy town where Montana surely can t get into too much trouble. But the small town is ripe with temptation more than Montana or her mom even realize, especially when Montana meets the star quarterback, Train Everly. She s drawn to his sea-green eyes, and his quiet personality. What she isn t ready for is his moodiness that seeps under her skin so much so that...
