By Nick Lantz

Graywolf Press, U.S., United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New.. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Nick Lantz writes with elegant simplicity. Most poets take a lifetime to learn as much. Linda Gregerson I say I love and I love and I love. However, the window will not close. However, the hawk searches for its nest after a storm. However, the discarded nail longs to hide its nakedness inside the tire. from Fork with Two Tines Pushed Together How to Dance as the Roof Caves In examines America as it faces a recession of collective mood and collective wealth. In a central sequence, the housing bubble reaches its bursting point when, with hilarious and biting outcomes, real estate developers hire a married couple and other down-and-out extras to stage a fake community to lure prospective investors. In these marvelous poems, Nick Lantz describes the changing American landscape with great imagination and sharp wit.
