PMS Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Projected History: A Catalog of the U.S. National Stories Released by Universal Newsreel, Volume Three, 1933-1935, is motion picture film sleuth Phillip W. Stewart's latest book. This third volume of his well-researched landmark work details over over a thousand nationally released newsreel titles that covered the fifth through seventh years of what was known back then as the Universal Newspaper Newsreel. One of the great benefits of the Projected History series is that all the Universal Newsreel stories that are known to exist today in the film vaults of the National Archives are identified. This is the first time that the newsreel title, description and story availability have been brought together in a single resource. Reviewers have called the Projected History series, A solid archive of history's highlights, compiled into an easy-to-use resource for quick reference, and enhanced with an exhaustive title index. Another remarked, Phil Stewart has created an important work. it will quickly become recognized as an invaluable resource for students of film, U.S. and world history enthusiasts, genealogy aficionados, and by those involved in TV, video and multimedia communications services. Before there was television there was the newsreel. Folks all over the country caught up on the latest news and events of our country and the world twice a week in their neighborhood movie theaters. The major American newsreel companies of that time covered world events, politics, sports, fashion, and anything else that might entertain the movie audience. Today, the newsreels offer a fascinating and unmatched moving image review of the first half of the 20th Century in glorious black and white. Out of the five major sound newsreels that documented America and the World from the...
