It is contended that Jesus performed miraculous works to prove himself to be God. But had this been his design, John must have recorded them for the same purpose. And since John has assured us that the signs which Jesus did are recorded to prove that he is the Christ, the Son of God, it is an unavoidable inference, that they were performed for the same purpose. Those who were eye witnesses of the miracles of Christ did not infer from them, as Trinitarians do, that he was God. They inferred that he was a teacher come from God that he was approved of God that God was with him and they glorified Goo, (not Christ) who had given such power unto men. I believe there is no instance recorded in the New Testament in which any one, either, friend or foe, either Jew or Gentile,...
