Excerpt: . . . money to the Sunday school fund. At different periods during the year the members of the Sunday school decide by vote to what cause this money shall be given. Many different causes have been helped, among others Mrs. Millss school in China, a mission for the deaf in Paris, the San Francisco sufferers, the local Washington charities, and the mountain schools in Kentucky. The list of causes contributed to since the beginning of our Sundav school is a long one, and in the history of the school I believe that between 1, 500 and 1, 600 has been thus distributed. Mr. A. W. Dobyns. Instead of the pupils having an active part in the Sunday work five times a year, as Mr. Hall has told us about, I want to say that in the Arkansas school our pupils take a very prominent part every Sunday. Each class takes its turn and conducts most of the service of the Sunday school. The prayer is given by one of the boys. A hymn is given by several girls; after the Sunday school lesson, there is another hymn by the boys and a closing prayer by one of the girls. They usually start out witli the Lords prayer, but soon learn to make up their own prayers. Miss Eddy. I think our pupils should be encouraged to worship in their own churches in place of having so much chapel work in the school. This plan should work...
