The sun glistened on scores of polished bayonets, as sturdy figures, clad in olive drab, which matched in hue the brown of the earth, sprang from their trenches and rushed forward. Put some pep into it! Lively now! Get the Germans! There were dull thuds, and there was a ripping, tearing sound as the steel slashed its way through the tough cloth. Now their weapons were directed downward with deadly force, and they sank them into the forms on the ground with such energy that the earth beneath was torn and gashed, and the muzzles of the guns, to which the stabbing bayonets were attached, made deep impressions on the yielding forms. There s a German on the ground! Get him!.
