ALLISON S DEFEAT: THE CALNIS CHRONICLES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The further she runs from her fate The closer the Devil s Emissary marches to his. An enjoyable ride. I m definitely glad I read it. -Brandon Hale, author of the Day Soldiers saga Sixteen year old Allison has definite plans for her future. A Fender Stratocaster, to marry her childhood sweetheart, and the cover of Rolling Stone is all she wants. So when a new school friend tells her she is to be God s warrior, and a black cloaked woman enters her life with murderous intentions, she fears her dreams will soon evaporate. Though Allison refuses to believe in any divine being, her conviction is tested as she confronts her growing psychic abilities and struggles with knowledge she cannot possess. She is thrown into a life where immortal beings battle in a millennia-long war, and Fate has recruited her. At the centre of everything lies a sword, bathed in a bright light, its transparent blade stabbed into the wooden floor; a symbol of her ultimate fate. Beyond her confusion and dismay, the Devil s Emissary awaits the fight. Word count 77 000. WARNING Contains violence, strong language, and scenes of a sexual nature. The Calnis Chronicles. The once great realm of Calnis lies in ruins. Few know of its existence except in fairy tales and myths. Older even than the nation itself is the ancient power that still lies beneath the capital - a power that must never be wielded. Today the nation s legacy lives on through the Tarimain, immortal soldiers fighting for the good of all existence. But the forces of Hell are intent on reigniting the war that began before time itself. A war between...
