Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .They have existed in plain sight for hundreds of years. They ve maintained an eternal watch over us and protected us from impossible horrors. They ve waged wars in complete shadow. Their powers are infinite, their skills are supernatural. They are virtually unstoppable. However, so are their enemies. Marcus Townsend is a seemingly ordinary college student with an overactive imagination and a lack of drive. All that changes in one night when his parents are attacked and three brutal murders are committed in London by an assassin who defies the laws of physics. The only link between the victims is a strange red and black rose. Marcus must uncover the truth behind the victims if he is to evade their fate. But he soon learns that the stakes are far greater than just his life. Dispatchers takes Astral Projection to a dark new level in this fast-paced action thriller set in modern day London. Past Reviews What you will get from this book is a fantastic read and will leave you hungry for the next instalment. I wish I could Dispatch! by M.W. Duncan. Author of Only the Dead - 5 Stars The twists and turns of the plot keep you wanting to read more, and the surprising ending leaves a yearning for more tales of the heroic Dispatchers. by Arthur Crandon. Author of Deadly Election - 5 Stars Science fiction books tend to concentrate either on the technical or the supernatural aspects of future (or present) life on earth. This book combines both, and does so in a rather unusual fashion. by H Starrenburg - 4 Stars.
