Sebastian does his best to stick up for his buddy, but to the two friends dismay, the human children just won t warm up to Lewis. That is, until the day the children are ushered out of the school and informed by the principal that a legion of zombies is living in the basement! After careful consideration, the school turns to Lewis to negotiate with the zombies, hoping he can persuade them to leave. Suddenly, everything is in young Lewis hands. How will the zombies react to a half human zombie? What do they want with the school? You ll have to read Basement Blast to find out! hilariously uplifting, and subtly sweet, this book will have your child smiling ear to ear as he cheers on the hero.
