FORTIFYING PAKISTAN (PAPERBACK)

United States Institute of Peace Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book. Faced with domestic security challenges including sectarian extremism, drug trafficking, illegal commodity smuggling, endemic corruption, and systemic problems with the provision of justice and law enforcement, Pakistan is a critical but vulnerable partner of the United States in the global war on terrorism. While much has been written about U.S. military assistance to Pakistan and the ever-evolving political relations between the two...
