Hill of the Muses presents a skillful use of rhetoric to evoke meaning from the author s experiences. Fagan makes insightful use of knowledge of arts, science, philosophy, history, and many other subjects as he takes the reader into the art of words. In his essay on the art of achievement Fagan succinctly states his method of accomplishment which should guide others toward their own realization. Following that the author presents poetry that takes the reader to a place of higher perception. It is not enough to write a poem to the reader. An effective poet changes something in the reader.
