

Legally Married, Mentally and Spiritually Divorced: How to Refresh Tired Relationships (Paperback)

By Dr Michael F Conrad

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Married or not, relationships are like tires, they get old, need air, and sometimes have a blowout. When you form a relationship, there is no 80 year guarantee on your tread. You must check your tread for wear and put the proper amount of air in the tires, or they won't last. If you have a blowout, you might need to replace your tires altogether. You see any parallels between the wear and tear of your automobile tires with your human relationships? This is a book about relationships, the key place where you will find meaning in your life. If your relationship is worn, you may need to put air in your tires. It is so important because God is relationship. Not all relationships are spiritual, but you won't discover spirituality until you know the meaning of the words--faith and love. Like old treads, love can wear out, if not refreshed. Relationships also need to be refreshed. Don't you agree? The focus of this book is primarily for those who consider themselves in a legal, binding marriage,...
