Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Salena Sinha (illustrator). 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This memoir is about the life and making of prospective doctors at a medical college in a small town in India. The protagonist is a headstrong girl who initially had no inclination for the medical profession. Nonetheless keeping up with the norms of the educated middle class Indian family, she reluctantly clears the entrance exam and gets admission into a college not exactly a top-notch one. Right from her first step into her campus, what she encounters is a complete antithesis of the perceived image of the medical profession! Well, as per the prevalent perception, she too had imagined the medical students aka medicos as somber, bookish and hard-working with little interest in non-academic matters and leading an insipidly staid campus life. But she soon finds out that a medico with such attributes is a rarest of the rare species, at least in her college. She is also startled to encounter the common ailments of the society rampant in the haloed environment of the medical college. Despite the students who have gained the admission on...
