FIVE STONES FOR CHRISTIANS IN CRISIS (PAPERBACK)

When you find yourself in such crises, your world can seem to be in a tailspin. Is there a guidebook to survive and thrive a crisis? With Five Stones for Christians in Crisis, you can find your way through the maze and come out even stronger in the end. David chose five stones when he fought Goliath. You can also pick up five stones to fight your Goliath as this book outlines five key factors to overcoming any crisis. It is assumed that Christians have a strong foundation to get through such events but many do not have the skills to prevent from being overcome by emotion, depression, and possibly abandoning their faith. The purpose of this book is to give concrete coping strategies and survival tactics on what to do when facing a crisis and how to mature spiritually when the crisis is over. Written by a cancer survivor, these tactics can help you stay centered on God and even become stronger spiritually.
