Gift Giving quality . " In autumn of 1893 , Francine Chayter came to live with her papa . a famous photographer . in his new London home at Spinners End . Excited by the East End of London . with its teeming docks and bustling street life . Francine was longing to get to know her father . But Edwin Chayter proved not merely indifferent to the child . he hated the very sight of her ! . Heartbroken by his rejection, Francine made friends with the servants . As Francine grew up . she began to question the strange circumstances of her upbringing . In spite of her father being such an expert photographer . he had no pictures of his late wife , Francine's mother . and her name was never mentioned . Taking the opportunity for an unexpected trip to Monte Carlo at the age of 16 . Francine discovers a whole new world for a young Victorian girl . one that included champagne, balls , and casinos . However , her early suffering . and the keen eye of the amateur photographer that she has become . make her observant . Beneath the masks of partying she sees hidden envy and discontent . A surprise revelation she makes about her mother . and a meeting with the man she wants to marry . are followed by the outbreak of the Boer War . Later . struggling with her new role as wife . and mother . Francine rebels against Victorian society . to become a gifted and innovative...
