The Managed Healthcare Industry -- A Market Failure (Paperback)

By MD Jack Charles Schoenholtz

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Supreme Court has now planted the Affordable Care Act firmly among those needing healthcare coverage. Its 2015 decision in King v. Burwell begins with noting that Obamacare grew out of a long history of failed health insurance reform, and ends with the sweeping conclusion, Congress passed the Affordable Care Act to improve health insurance markets, not to destroy them. So, why are the cost of healthcare in the United States and our infant mortality rate still higher than over 30 advanced nations? The book's second, expanded, edition offers a comprehensive overview of healthcare history, the factors, fictions, laws, and policies leading up to the Affordable Care Act. This indispensable resource by Professor Jack C. Schoenholtz offers page after eye-opening page information that explains the often-overwhelming issue of the costly managed healthcare industry. This edition of The Managed Healthcare Insurance Industry--A Market Failure, intensifies its investigation of America's healthcare. The book is written for the public who wish to understand the health and structure of the US healthcare system. It also reaches college-age youth, educators, and healthcare...
